HUDCO funding for housing scheme in Andhra Pradesh

148. SHRI SOLIPETA RAMACHANDRA REDDY: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether HUDCO would be providing money to the Andhra Pradesh Government for housing scheme;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the action proposed to ensure that the houses are completed within the target dates?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI BANDARU DATTATRAYA): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. Housing & Urban Development Corporation Ltd. (HUDCO) has made an initial allocation of Rs. 57.31 crore for the year 2001-2002, for housing schemes in the State of Andhra Pradesh.

In addition, HUDCO has separately provided for loan assistance of approximately Rs. 102.84 crore for construction of 73457 houses under the Two Million Housing Programme of Government of India for urban and rural areas in the State.

(c) The progress is monitored by HUDCO on a regular basis through periodical progress reports and site inspections by HUDCO officers, to ensure completion of houses within the target dates.
